The Answer – Winners of Best New Band!

The Answer have won Best New Band at the star-studded inaugural Classic Rock Awards held last night in central London. Editor of Classic Rock Magazine, Scott Rowley presented the award to the surprised Northern Irish quartet, who have been gaining support from all areas of the rock industry off the back of their debut EP 'Keep Believin' released back in July. A shell-shocked Cormac Neeson had this to say:

"We're over-whelmed to win this award; especially as some of our greatest idols were sat in the room watching us collect our award, drinking champagne. As well as that we got to have our photo taken with Jimmy Page. It was a great night."

The band are currently writing and recording new material for their forthcoming debut album – scheduled for a release in spring 2006. A brand new single 'Never Too Late' will be out in the shops on November 14th 2005 through Albert Productions. A stunning slab of blues laced rock 'n' roll, re-creating the spirit of 70's rock with soul-filled vocals and good time grooves, and is as loud and vital as you'd want your new favourite rock band to sound like.

You can catch them live when they tour with Tokyo Dragons and The Sound Explosion on the School Of Rock Tour and then as main support to Alter Bridge. Full tour dates below.
