

THE ANSWER

New Single, Oct 2nd and Headline UK Autumn Tour

Northern Irish rockers 'The Answer' edge ever nearer to the top with news of a brand new single release and huge co-headline touring schedule in October.

The single, 'Under The Sky' released on October 2nd 2006 through Albert Productions, is backed by a storming live version of 'The Doctor' and brand new song 'I Won't Let You Down' and will be accompanied by an animated performance video, directed by ITV-famed CGI expert Julian Kirby.

'Under The Sky' is the high energy, speaker-blowing opening track from their current debut album 'RISE', an album lauded by all corners of the music industry and declared by some as "best rock debut of a decade" (Classic Rock) and "fresh and invigorating as any debut album in living memory" (Kerrang! KKKKK). It entered the UK Independent album chart at Number 5, Number 8 in the national album rock chart and has continued to sell like hot cakes since its release on June 26th, having just passed the 10,000 marker. No wonder the early success of 'Rise' has garnered the attention of overseas labels and The Answer are now gearing up for the release of 'Rise' through out Europe (PIAS), South Africa (Next) and Australia (Alberts/SonyBmg) at the end of September. To coincide with the UK single release the band will co-headline (w/ Roadstar) a huge autumn tour ("Let the good times roll") culminating in a headline show at London's Mean Fiddler venue, November 1st.

It follows a hectic summer schedule packed with live dates including a support slot for The Who at Wireless Leeds, a set at Bulldog Bash, supports with Whitesnake on their UK tour, and headlining their own Eire tour. Prior to pounding the UK with their good time rock 'n' roll the boys will be touring Germany with DAD and doing intensive promotion throughout Europe. International success beckons.
