

answer

The Answer inhabit a space in the current Irish music scene which is entirely their own, possessing the skill and power of a classic 70's rock act but with the added bonus of a modern day edge and intimidating youthful energy. Straight away influences from bands like The Who, Free or Led Zeppelin are apparent but dig a little deeper or see them live then it is clear there is so much more to The Answer.

“The answer promise to be one of the finest bands to come out of the Irish music scene in many years, catch them while you can” – The Gaurdian

“Most importantly we believe in the music and each other. We love the high of playing live, there is no other feeling like it in the world” – Cormac Neeson – The Answer
